REVOLUTION IN SANTIAGO DEL ESTERO.

The outbreak of a revolutionary movement in Santiago del Estero, although by no means an unexpected event, has unpleasantly surprised the new Government, who have been requested by the overthrown Governor to decree National intervention with a view of reinstating him. The particular of the movement are embodied in the following telegrams:

Santiago del Estero, October 19.

(OVER ROSARIO RAILWAY LINE.)

The expected revolution has broken out, and, after half an hour's fighting, the revolutionaries have triumphed, the Governor surrendering with his forces. There is great popular rejoicing at the success of the movement.

(Later.) The revolutionary preparations must have met with popular support, for the Governor was completely taken by surprise. He had been expected to take place at daylight but the last moment it was decided to postpone it till midday. Governor Rojas was breakfasting at the time. He was alarmed by the sudden noise of the firing and he soon realised the situation. He handed the doors and awaited the attack with his friends.

The revolutionists attacked the police and soldiers of the line in the Calidito house, and after a short struggle, the Governor was taken prisoner. He was not yet known whether the Captain was surprised as well as the officers of the garrison. Part of the Calidito forces got up on the roof from which they began firing. The revolutionists were headed by Mr. Pedro Garcia, a prominent member of the Goriolista party. It was he that headed the last revolution which overthrew Governor Ruiz. Mr. Garcia was at one time provincial Senator. He is married to a cousin of Mr. Manuel Goriola.

In the first attack, Captain Bravo, who was in command of the troops sent by President Pellegrini to uphold Governor Rojas, was taken prisoner. It is not yet known whether the Captain was wounded or not. All that is known is that Mr. Garcia himself took him prisoner and offered him his own private house as prison. Some of the Calidito made a sally and managed to escape to different parts of the town. The town is completely in the hands of the revolutionists.

Governor Rojas at first offered resistance, but at the instance of the Calidito he agreed to surrender on condition that his person should be respected. His residence is situated within a few doors from the Calidito house. He is known to be before surrendering, he sent a telegram to the President of the Republic asking for State-intervention to reinstate him. He qualifies the movement as a "revolucion de la casa."

The revolution was got up by the Goriolista party. The political fraction headed by Dr. Carlos Villar remained aloof, although they are in sympathy with the movement.

Ex-Governor Ruiz is supposed to be gathering forces in the country to come to the Governor's rescue. The revolutionists, however, are quite confident that nothing will be done in that direction. Commissioner Gandara is collecting forces in La Banda.

Santiago del Estero, Oct. 19.—The revolution broke out at midnight. 25 armed citizens attacked the Calidito, crying out Viva la Libertad! Viva Santiago Libre! Viva Don Pedro Garcia! Viva la Union Provincial! The assailants carried off the Calidito's arms and the forces surrendered, after firing six or seven men. While this was going on crowds of citizens armed with all kinds of weapons poured into the Plaza and declared themselves in favor of the revolution.

The Governor, vice-Governor, Chief of Police and other functionaries are in the hands of the revolutionists. The number of casualties is 5 killed and 10 wounded.

The greatest popular enthusiasm prevails.

To the foregoing we may add that on the evening of the 19th, a note to the General Assembly of the House of Representatives, the following provisional Government was named by the revolutionists: Pedro Garcia, Lagar, Genaro Martinez and Napoleon Toboada. It is believed that the local legislature will resign en masse.

It was rumored last evening that the telegram from the overthrown Governor asking for intervention is not authentic.
